

Cowper Places Sydney Tour

Wednesday 19 August 2009
(Limited seats available)

Join us on a coach tour around Sydney as we explore a number of 'Cowper places' concluding with a self-guided tour of Cockatoo Island

9.15am St Philip's Church Hill – Morning Tea in the Parish Room

9.45am Board Forest Coach Lines Coach for 10am departure

From the coach we will view a number of historic sites, each important to the development of the religious, political, medical and educational institutions of early Sydney. A commentary and brochure will outline the part played by William Cowper and his sons in the public life of the developing colony.

Bus tour ends at:

12.40pm

Circular Quay: set down for those continuing to self-guided tour of Cockatoo Island

12.50pm

Coach terminates at St Philip's Church Hill (if required)

Cockatoo Island – self-guided tour

12.55pm

Wharf number 5 Circular Quay, Sydney Ferries. Abbotsford service Includes Cockatoo Island Note: individual ferry tickets need to be purchased

Near the wharf at Cockatoo Island the Muster Café serves inexpensive light meals (no dish over $12) 8.30am – 4pm. There is a steep walk to the top of the island where "Biloela" will be opened for family members – although not restored. This is the stone house where Charles Jnr (William's grandson) lived with his family when he was Sheriff of New South Wales between 1874 and 1896

Return to Circular Quay by ferry leaving the island at 2.55pm or 3.55pm

In the event of being unable to accommodate all applicants, would you please indicate on your booking sheet if you are available on Thursday 20 August – same time, same arrangements.

COWPER200